

Earning A Scholarship To Attend CCU Summer Performing Arts Academy

Some of the sites for workshops and auditions have not been finalized. This document will be updated by mid-October to include locations for all activities listed below.*

Amount of the Scholarship

Scholarships are for 100% of tuition. Parents/students pay nothing for tuition.

Scholarship Requirements

1. Attend one or more Artistic GT Workshops as follows:
 - a. Fri.-Sat., Nov. 4-5, 2011 at the HCS All-County Theatre Festival at Atlantic Stage
(For students participating in the festival)
 - b. Saturday, February 18, 2012 from 9:00 AM to 12:00 Noon, Site TBA
 - c. Saturday, February 18, 2012 from 1:00 to 4:00 PM. Site TBA
 - d. Tuesday, February 21, 2012 from 6:00 to 9:00 PM, Site TBA
 2. Audition for the Academy Scholarship at Site TBA on March 3, 2012
- Each of the workshops is essentially the same and students may attend as many as they wish to feel comfortable with the audition requirements for March. We do not recommend that students attend back-to-back sessions on the same day. Students who qualified for the program last year may well be comfortable after one session. Students who have never qualified for a Summer Arts Scholarship before are encouraged to attend two sessions. There are no “do-overs” on the auditions.

Workshop and Audition Location

The workshops and auditions will take place at sites to be announced. For each session students should report to register 20 minutes before the session is scheduled to begin.

Forms and paperwork

You do not have to complete paperwork in advance. All paperwork will be at the registration desk at the workshops.

Academy Housing

Residential only. No day camp. Dorms supervised by staff and teachers.

Transportation to and from CCU

Students/parents responsibility

Tentative Dates for Performing Arts Academy

June 10-22, 2012

September 26, 2011

Memo To: Parents of Potential Artistically Gifted & Talented Children
From: Bert Owen, Fine Arts Specialist
Subject: Artistic Gifted & Talented Program/Summer Arts Academy

Attached please find information about an outstanding opportunity for your child(ren).

1. Anyone can attend the CCU Summer Academies by paying full tuition but 6th through 11th graders enrolled in the Horry County Schools who qualify by being identified as artistically gifted and talented receive full scholarships to attend at no cost to parents.
2. Fine Arts teachers at your child's school can provide additional or clarifying information about this for you or your child. Feel free to talk to them.
3. You can call my office at 488-6742 for information.
4. Screening and audition are terms for the "test" to determine if a child is artistically gifted and talented.
5. The test is very challenging but the workshops are designed to give students the extra learning they need to be successful.
6. This program is funded and controlled by the State Department of Education and we have to meet a number of regulations regarding the amount of time students receive instruction. The workshops are part of that time requirement. No matter how gifted they are, students cannot receive a scholarship unless they attend at least one workshop.
7. Since there is no advance deposit required and since students must attend at least one workshop we will distribute applications for scholarships at that time. No need to fill anything out now. They just have to be at the university at the time and place described on the reverse page.
8. The CCU Summer Arts Academy is strictly residential. There is no day-camp option. Students live in the college dorms supervised by staff and teachers.
9. You have to get them to and from the college for Academy check-in and check-out.

The most important thing for your child to earn a scholarship is to attend a Workshop in February. There will be staff members from the school district and university there to supervise students but parents are welcome to attend the sessions with their children. We strongly recommend that students attend more than one session if they have never qualified for a Summer Arts Academy scholarship in the past.

Please feel free to contact me if I can provide information or assistance.
