ABOUT HCS

- HCS is made up of 56 schools within nine attendance areas: Aynor, Carolina Forest, Conway, Green Sea Floyds, Loris, Myrtle Beach, North Myrtle Beach, Socastee, and St. James.
- HCS is made up of 28 primary/elementary schools, 13 middle schools, 11 high schools, 2 academies, 1 alternative school, and 4 charter schools.
- Home to 15 National Blue Ribbon schools (with 8 in the last decade), HCS routinely outperforms the state of South Carolina on standardized tests such as SC READY, End-of-Course Evaluations, and the WIN Career Readiness Test. HCS also routinely outperforms the state and the nation on the SAT.
- HCS's Class of 2024 earned $104 million in scholarships. Of those graduates, 72% planned to attend a 2-year or 4-year college or university, and 66% met eligibility requirements for scholarships supported by the South Carolina Education Lottery.
- The District has a consolidated budget of $1.16 billion.
- HCS enjoys partnerships with local higher education institutions, including Horry-Georgetown Technical College and Coastal Carolina University.
- Located along the northeast coast of South Carolina, HCS is in a thriving and growing community. Horry (pronounced O-Ree) County's population has more than doubled over the past 30 years and is the 2nd fastest-growing metropolitan statistical area in the nation for the fourth consecutive year.
- The area known as the Grand Strand is a large, diverse community. It is a premier tourist destination that includes 60 miles of beaches and attracts more than 20 million visitors each year for family fun, golf, water sports, shopping, entertainment, and business travel. Horry County is also home to the Myrtle Beach International Airport, which provides over 50 direct flights, as well as easy connections to several hubs, including Atlanta, GA, and Charlotte, NC. The district is an hour's drive to Wilmington, NC, and a two-hour drive to Charleston, SC, and the state capital, Columbia, with convenient access to Interstates 20 and 95.
- More information about the district is available at www.horrycountyschools.net and on BWP & Associates' website at www.bwpassociates.com.
