Academic Opportunities

North Myrtle Beach High School serves the northeastern portion of Horry County and encompasses a very diverse population of students. It strives to maintain academic and extra-curricular programs that offer a wide variety of options that are as diverse as the student population. Some of the academic offerings include: ten Advanced Placement courses offered to student at all grade levels in all four academic areas as well as the Fine Arts, twenty-three honors level courses, fourteen dual enrollment courses offered for college credit to students in grades 10-12 in conjunction with Horry Georgetown Technical College, dual enrollment coursework for EDUC 101/Teacher Cadets in conjunction with Coastal Carolina University, and Career and Technology Education courses (CATE) in the areas of Business and Culinary Arts.

North Myrtle Beach High School offers a wide variety of clubs and organizations available for students to join. These include but are not limited to honor societies, service organizations, competition teams, and athletics. Varsity athletics made a statement this year with region titles in Football, Varsity Girls' Track, Cross Country, Swimming, and Wrestling. The NMBH's community service organization, The Christmas Angel Club, raised funds to provide over 200 elementary students with a Christmas.

North Myrtle Beach High School strives to afford students opportunities to grow academically and socially in order to prepare them for life in the post-secondary realm. Whether our students choose to enter the workforce, join the military, or pursue an educational degree in their field of interest, it is our goal that they are prepared to be successful as they aim to reach their goals.
