

_____ 's January READO

Due The week of Jan. 31- Feb 5

Each night students are required to read 10-15 minutes. Complete as many activities as you can throughout the month. Color each square when you complete the activity. Try to get 5 in a row.

Happy reading!

Parent Signature x _____

R	E	A	D	O
Read a new book for the new year.	Read a book about a famous American.	Read a poem about snow. Write your own.	Read a recipe with the cook in your house.	Read a book in your pajamas.
Read a riddle or joke book. Then write your own and share with someone.	Tell someone at home about the main character in your book. Draw them a picture.	Use the newspaper to read the weather report with an adult.	After reading, use the alphabet to describe your story. Try to use all the letters.	Read a book by A.A Milne. We remember Winnie the Pooh this month.
Read a book about Martin Luther King, Jr.	Read while having some hot chocolate.	FREE CHOICE	Make predictions about a new book.	Read a picture book to someone at home.
Create a bookmark for your new book. Create another for a friend.	Read about Jackie Robinson or another baseball player.	Read to someone in an expressive voice. Keep changing it.	Draw a picture of your favorite part of the story. Share with an adult.	Read a non-fiction book about severe weather.
Warm up with a good book for 15 minutes.	Read in your favorite spot in the house.	Read a book about snow or the winter.	Read in a comfortable spot at home.	Read a book about Rosa Parks.