Call Me MISTER- HGTC

DEADLINE: June 1

The Call Me MISTER (Mentors Instructing Students Toward Effective Role Models) Program is a statewide and national initiative. The mission of the program is to increase the pool of available teachers from a broader more diverse background particularly among the State's lowest performing elementary schools. College student participants with high academic potential, a demonstrated commitment to teach and a servant-leadership orientation are largely selected from among under-served, socio-economically disadvantaged and educationally at-risk communities.

Benefits of the Program:

- Financial assistance towards tuition, books and institutional fees for students enrolled in the Education Transfer or Early Care and Education programs;
- A strong academic support system to ensure a successful matriculation at HGTC; and
- A strong social support system from Call Me MISTER cohorts and past participants.

Who Is Eligible to Apply?

- To apply for the admittance into the Call Me MISTER program, a student must first apply for admission into HGTC and be accepted as a student.

How Do I Apply?

- The deadline for applying for the Fall cohort is June 1. Students interested in participating should complete the following:

Complete the HGTC admissions process and gain acceptance into the college.

Submit a completed application packet to:

Horry Georgetown Technical College, c/o Call Me MISTER,
PO Box 261966, Conway, South Carolina 29528-6066

Application must include:

- A completed Call Me MISTER Application
- Two letters of recommendation
 - One letter from an educator or administrator representing the last school attended
 - One letter from a person of the student's choice who can attest to the student's involvement in the community and/or potential for entering the teaching profession.
- An essay titled "Why I Want to Teach" which will address the student's motivation for entering the teaching profession and the contributions he/she intends to make to the profession and the community as a teacher.
- An essay titled "Why I Should Be Accepted into the Call Me MISTER Program"
- A signed statement from a counselor or school official certifying that the student is from an under-served, under-privileged or economically disadvantaged background or area.
- A copy of the student's most recent transcript.
- The applicant must also complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). Learn more about the Financial Aid Process.

Participant Expectations

- All MISTERS must pass PRAXIS I before transferring to a four-year college/university.
- If a MISTER decides to change majors and not pursue a teaching career, it is expected that the MISTER will return or repay all financial support funding received while participating in the cohort.
