

Horry County Schools High School Summer Reading

Receive EXTRA CREDIT in your high school English class next year!

- Read a book over the summer and complete the HCS High School Summer Reading Assessments!
- Your parent/guardian must approve your selected text for extra credit to be considered.
- Extra credit assessments must be completed thoroughly and accurately for extra credit to be awarded.
- Students may not complete the extra credit assessments based on a book they have read previously.
- Copies of the assessment can be found on high school websites, in guidance, and in the front office.
- All assignments are due on September 5, 2019.

All students who accurately and thoroughly complete the extra credit assignment will earn one percentage point of extra credit on their first marking period ELA grade.

Happy Reading!
